

All About Photo Announces Winners of the AAP Magazine #35: Colors

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE : LOS ANGELES, OCTOBER 28, 2023

We're delighted to reveal the names of the 25 talented photographers who won AAP Magazine #35: Colors.

The world is a rich tapestry of colors, stretching from the lush green of the grass beneath our feet to the endless expanse of the blue sky above. Our reality is far from a mere dichotomy of black and white. Can you fathom a world stripped of its vibrant hues?

Colors constitute a ubiquitous presence in our daily existence, exerting their influence often imperceptibly. Numerous studies have demonstrated the capacity of colors to express a wide range of emotions, moods, and cognitive processes. Notably, photographers are captivated by the multifaceted realm of colors.

In the 35th edition of AAP Magazine, we sought to exalt the vivid spectrum of colors. Ultimately, we selected twenty-five photographers, with a majority being women, hailing from nine distinct countries across three continents. Their choice of colors spans the gamut, encompassing audacious and lively hues, subtle pastels, and even monochromatic tones. Yet, each selection reflects a deliberate aesthetic decision that enhances the photograph's visual allure and evokes sensory delight.

The Winner of AAP Magazine 35 Colors is Kyla Rys (USA) with her series Thinking of Guy Bourdin
