

All About Photo Reveals the Winners of AAP Magazine #52: STREET

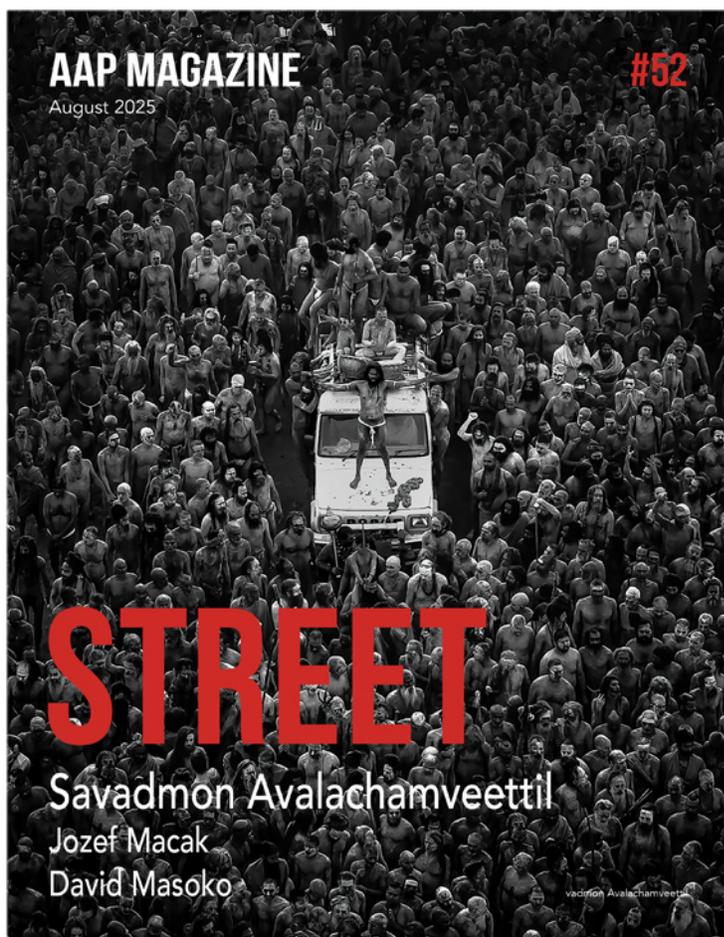

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE : LOS ANGELES, NOVEMBER 26, 2025

We're delighted to unveil the 25 talented photographers selected as winners of AAP Magazine #52: Street — a vibrant group representing 15 countries across 5 continents.

As Joel Meyerowitz once said, "Street photography is about discovering the extraordinary in the ordinary."

These twenty-five photographers have done exactly that, capturing life in towns and cities around the world with sensitivity, precision, and intuition.

For this 52nd edition, we set out to find images that reveal the heart and soul of a society — moments that speak to who we are, how we move, and how we inhabit our shared spaces. Whether photographed far away or close to us, the winning images reflect the diversity of each photographer's background, vision, and approach to the genre. With their sharp eye for decisive moments, they invite us to observe, wander, and experience the pulse of daily life through their lens.

From a lone figure rising above a dense crowd to a group of men guiding a battered green taxi across wooden planks, the selection spans continents and cultures, revealing the many ways people navigate their environments. From inventive urban diptychs exploring dislocated presences to images filled with humor, poetry, geometry, vivid colors, and timeless black-and-white, none of these photographs will leave you indifferent.

Street photography demands a rare blend of intuition and discipline — the ability to anticipate a scene, find meaning in the mundane, and press the shutter at the precise instant when light, gesture, and human truth align.

Choosing the winners was no easy task, but we are proud to present this compelling collection of strange, beautiful, and unforgettable moments. We hope you will enjoy discovering them as much as we did.
